Artists, professionals set to open stylish 4731 Building in Detroit

Art, offices and fine food come together at the November 13, grand opening of the 4731 Building in downtown Detroit.

The evening features the works of local artists, music by the Jerome Clark Quartet, and complimentary wine and Hors D'oeuvres courtesy of Manila Bay Café and Provident Real Estate & Asset Management. The event will allow guests to expand their network, create new business opportunities, and mingle with Metro Detroit's top professionals in one of Detroit's most historical chic buildings. The event begins at 7 p.m.

The 4731 Building is located at 4731 Grand River Avenue, 1 mile west of the Motor City Casino in downtown Detroit. The building's stylish space is a magnet for artists and professionals alike. Awarded "Best Arts Building" in 2004 by The Detroit Free Press, the building is now under the management of Provident Real Estate & Asset Management, an Ann Arbor based property management firm. Offices and studios will be open during the event for viewing.

Art lovers and studio seekers are encouraged to come. The evening promises plenty of fun and networking.
